

Interconnection Networks

Prof. Natalie Enright Jerger

Project Reminders

- Final presentation next Wed (April 13)
 - 8 minutes
 - +2-3 minutes for questions
 - Worth 20% of project grade
 - Ok if final results not ready
 - Audience: class
 - Introduce and motivate your project
 - If dual project with Greg's class
 - Focus on the part of the project related to interconnection networks

Project Final Report

- Due April 22, 2011
- 5 pages, 2 column conference format
 - Concisely and clearly present your work
- Worth 40% of project grade
- Introduction, Methodology, Results, Future directions
- Writing counts!

Today

- Last paper presentation:
 - A Case for Dynamic Frequency Tuning in On-Chip Networks
- Discussion of other papers from this week
- Course evaluation